Views of the Stars.

People in the southern hemisphere see different stars, but there are some constellations which are visible at different times of the year in both hemispheres. If the earth's axis kept always perpendicular to the plane of its orbit none of the northern constellations would ever be seen in the southern hemisphere, but as the axis inclines one way and then the other, some of both sets can be seen at different times.

GETS WAR BONUS FROM MINNESOTA

The state of Minnesota is loyal to her soldier sons who enlisted from that commonwealth to fight in the late world war. A handsome bonus is given each soldier after he receives his discharge papers. Yesterday Fred E. Erickson, auto driver for the Silver Hills Mines company, received a check from the state auditor of Minnesota for the amount of $210 as his bonus from that state. Mr. Erickson enlisted from Minnesota and spent two years in the service at the United States Naval Air Station, Rockaway Beach, Long Island, N. Y. He was honorably discharged May 13, 1920. There are six states, and only six, that give bonuses. Each state in the union should have made provisions for their returned soldier boys who did valiant service for our country; he boys who fought for freedom and liberty in order that you and I who remained at home might continue to live in a free country. Nevada should give assisted her boys, who went to on the war with a bonus on a farm, a home, a business, a job, a pension.

MINAITES ATTEND ELK CEREMONIES

Ray Baker and Ed Estace, members of Tonopah lodge No. 1062 B. P. O. Elks, motored up from Mina last evening to participate in the big doings at the lodge. Owing to the Baker's main physique he was made "anchor man" of the Alum Club of the local Elk organization. It is said that several of the candidates who became members of the order last evening can vouch for his prowess and superhuman strength. Both gentlemen returned to Mina this afternoon.

VILLA OFFERS TO REBUILD CITY

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 6.—(Associated Press.)—Juan Villa, who once Mexican revolutionary leader, has offered to rebuild the city of Jimenez, which he helped to wreck during his bandit days, according to J. E. Hardy, American mining man, who has returned to Los Angeles after spending a year in the Mexican state of Durango. Hardy said Villa is living in peace on his 200,000-acre ranch at Canullo in Durango state. Many of his former lieutenants occupy small arms adjoining the Villa estate. The former bandit chief in an effort to regain his popularity, the mining man said, has offered to rebuild Jimenez and to spend $20,000 to improve the school system of Parral, another Mexican city. Villa, it was said, although granted amnesty by President Alvaro Obregon, takes no chances with his life and goes about armed and accompanied by a body guard.

AMUSEMENTS

GRACE DARLING AT THE BUTLER TODAY

"The Discarded Woman" will be seen at the Butler today, after a most successful run at one of the big Broadway theatres, New York, where it proved one of the most sensational drawing cards of the year.

The story deals in a big broad way with a phase of life that is all too common in its everyday happenings, that of a man discarding the woman who has placed her confidence in him and made every sacrifice for him, only to be put aside as a thing unfit when he tires of her. Most women who have suffered at the hands of some brute go through life sorrowing, but not so with Grace Darling, the beautiful star who plays the title role in "The Discarded Woman." She retrieves her loss—but how? Added to the feature will be a two-reel comedy.

Tomorrow, Owen Moore in "The Chickens in the Case."

Coming, Cecil B. DeMille's big special production, "Forbidden Fruit."

MAN, 84, MAKES WOODEN LEGS

YORK, S. C., April 6.—Dr. W. E. Irwin, aged 84, oldest white male citizen of this city, makes wooden legs. The doctor lost his own right leg by a shell during the war between the states. He built a wooden leg according to his own notion and he has been making them for other people ever since.

SOUTH CAROLINA HAS BLIND CORONER

(By Associated Press)
YORK, S. C., April 6.—York county lays claim to the most active blind coroner in the United States. The coroner, Paul G. McCorkle, former member of congress from the Fifth South Carolina district, walks about the streets of this city, unaided, save for a long cane. He is able to distinguish hundreds of people by their voices. His office is on the second story of the building on the Main square. In the winter he descends several times each day from his office with a coal scuttle in his hand. Walking down the stairway he finds his way to the coal pile, fills his scuttle and returns. Coroner McCorkle lost his eyesight many years ago when a horse which he was driving to a buggy ran away.
